

Ord could be the answer

WYCOMBE Wanderers are so concerned about their lack of goals that they are giving a trial to former Whitley Bay striker John Ord in tonight's (Tuesday) friendly against Carshalton Athletic at Loakes Park. Kick off 7.30 p.m.

Ord, a regular member of the Rothmans Northern League team this season, has just moved into the High Wycombe area on business and Blues manager Ted Powell must be hoping that he is the answer to their problems in front of goal.

This match, arranged over the weekend will give Blues fans a chance to see a side who will probably be playing Wycombe in the league next season. Carshalton at present are second in the Rothmans Isthmian League Division Two despite suffering a crop of injuries this season. Only Boreham Wood stand above them.

The Surrey side have lost their talented full-back Kenny Baker with a double fracture of a leg, while the experienced Alan Gillett was out for 10 weeks with another leg injury.

In their line up Carshalton expect to field the former Tooting and Walton player Chris Gedney and Robin Kember, who is a cousin of the more famous Steve Kember.
